Buys Sea-Side Home

William A. Heitman and Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. May were guests of Mrs. Ella Richardson Sunday. Mr. May is head of the Subdivision department of the W. A. Heitman Company and is considering the subdivision of all the Richardson properties in lots and acreage. Mr. Heitman, who is extensively engaged in large promotion work and whose offices occupy the entire ninth floor of the Merritt building in Los Angeles, left for a much-needed vacation in Washington. One of Mr. Heitman's engineering feats, the reclamation of Belmont Shore Place formerly tide lands east of Long Beach is advertised in the columns of the Evening News today. One of the big things awaiting his return is the subdivision of the $5,000,000 property just purchased back of Belmont Shore Place. Mrs. Richardson has already secured a summer home in this newly-opened section and is very enthusiastic about it. She thinks Glendale people who contemplate owning a sea-side home will enjoy a trip to Belmont Shore Place as a guest of the W. A. Heitman Co., leaving at 10 a. m. from the temporary Glendale offices of the company at 108 North Brand Blvd. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Beamon Recovering

Charles Beamon, 203 North Maryland avenue, whose eye was seriously injured in an accident at the Intermediate School last week, is gradually improving, and since no complication has set in, the attending physician reports that he will not lose the use of the eye. He is still confined to his home, and has to stay in darkened rooms.

PROMOTION DAY

PUPILS IN CENTRAL CHRISTIAN BIBLE SCHOOL MOVE UP ONE STEP

Sunday, September 26th, was promotion day in the Central Christian church. One class each from the Primary and Junior departments was promoted into the department above and the other classes were assigned advanced work. Commencement exercises were held for the two departments named, in charge of Miss Laura Wilford Brown, Primary superintendent, and Mrs. C. A. Cole, in charge of the Juniors. Appropriate exercises, consisting of songs, recitations and statistical readings were given and then diplomas and Bibles were presented. These exercises occupied about half the time of the morning service and were followed by

M. E. CONFERENCE

MINISTERS AND LAYMEN OF GLENDALE WILL ATTEND AND TAKE PART

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church of Southern California holds its session at Long Beach this week, beginning this evening with a reception for Bishop A. Wright Leonard at Trinity church. Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Crist, 315 North Jackson, leave for Conference Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Mary E. Pitner, 525 North Louise, and Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Norton, 801 East Wilson. Fourteen delegates from the First M. E. church, who were appointed Sunday morning, will attend the lay conference, which holds a joint session at Grace M. E. church, Long Beach. Arthur G. Lindley, 342 North Kenwood, will serve as lay electoral, with A. W. Tower, West Acacia, as alternate. The lay conference is a very important feature, as it deals with problems vital to the church.

The regular Conference begins Wednesday morning at eight, with a communion service, after which organization of the Conference is to be effected. Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to the Anniversary of Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. Business sessions of the Conference will be held each morning of the week. One evening, probably Saturday, will be devoted to an educational program conducted by representatives of the Methodist University, U. S. C., of Los Angeles. Sunday morning there will be a sermon by the Bishop, at 10:30, the service to be held in Long Beach Park.

Long Beach has been preparing for the reception of the Conference for some time, and this year's program will be an unusually interesting and profitable one. As usual, it entails a great deal of work also, as an enormous amount of church business comes up for settlement.

Rev. Crist will have an extremely busy week, as he holds a very important position as a member of the Conference Board of Stewards. This Board has to do with the distribution of the Conference Claimants' Fund. He serves also on the Committee of Education.

BROTHER'S KEEPER

The pool hall situation has settled itself down, it seems, to this question.

The church people, together with several outside the church, who put the teachings of Jesus first, namely: "That men and not things is the goal of social living," do not want a pool hall in Glendale.

While several business men who have lost sight of the fact that they really are their brother's keeper, and who have forgotten, too, that "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" or as some one has put it: "That chickens do come home to roost," have signed a petition to bring a pool hall to Glendale.

I have always found the business element in Glendale to be fair and generous in their dealings, therefore, it makes it exceedingly hard for me to understand their persistent attitude in this matter.

I have made a few inquiries and I understand one of their reasons is that a good deal of business is going to Los Angeles, which Glendale ought to have, "because we do not have a public pool hall here to keep the people here."

Or, in other words, if this be true, these same men are putting the dollar above our boys and girls.

I do not know how many people go to Los Angeles, certainly not any of the Protestant church people; certainly not any of the Elks, for I'm told they have their own tables and certainly would not pay dues for this privilege and go to Los Angeles at an expense of car fare or gasoline and then the added cost of the game.

Don't you think, Mr. Business Man, that it might be a good business proposition to consider the wishes of those of us who have no occasion to go to Los Angeles to play pool?

I believe we represent more than ten thousand of the fifteen thousand nearly of inhabitants.

Personally, I have often paid a few extra cents for things in Glendale over what I could have gotten the same thing for in Los Angeles and believe others have done the same thing.

I came to Glendale to live and raise my family because it was a clean city and have spoken often of our city to my friends and acquaintances as a place where there were no pool halls or public dance halls and for this reason a good place to come and live and so for one shall feel it my duty as a father of two boys and one girl to withdraw my business support from any business man who feels that the dollar is more important than the lives of our young people and I believe other parents feel the same way.

I'm strong for a recreation center and the only reason I'm glad that this question of a pool hall is receiving the attention it does is because it will hasten the establishing of a recreation center considerably for I believe the church people are going to get in behind it and they usually put it over.

Men let's be clean—keep our business clean and above all let's keep our city clean! Why not take your names off that petition?

L. C. LEEDS.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Wednesday.

EIGHT MEMBERS OF WHITE SOX INDICTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Eight members of the Chicago White Sox team during the 1919 world series were indicted today by the Cook county Grand Jury on charges of conspiracy to do an illegal act. The indictments were returned by the Grand Jury, which investigated alleged crookedness of baseball.

Those accused were: "Hop" Delsch, "Bick" Weaver, Fred McMullen, Chas. Risberg, Eddie Zicotte, Claude Williams, Joe Jackson and "Chick" Gandil.

Announcement that the indictments had been voted by the Grand Jury was made by Foreman H. H. Brigham, of the Grand Jury.

The indictments were returned after Zicotte, ace of the White Sox during the series, appeared before the Grand Jury and told what he knew of the alleged drawing of the series. Zicotte was taken secretly before the Grand Jury, and it took him an hour to tell what he knew. Immediately after he had given the jury the information which he possessed, announcement was made that the indictments had been voted by the foreman of the Grand Jury. Zicotte has been the central figure in the rumors which have persisted for nearly a year.

CHANGE WORLD SERIES DATE

AT THE REQUEST OF JAMES DUNN; FIRST GAME TO BE PLAYED IN BROOKLYN OCTOBER 5

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The National Baseball Commission, meeting here today, changed the dates for the world series as announced yesterday. Under the new arrangement the first game will be played in Brooklyn October 5.

Games will also be played in Brooklyn October 6 and 7. Then the teams will go to the American League city which wins the pennant. Four games will be played in the American League city, unless one team has won the series.

The change was made at the request of James Dunn, owner of the Cleveland Indians, probable winners of the American League pennant, who declared that arrangements for the opening game in Cleveland October 5 could not be completed in time.

FAVORS COMPENSATION ACT

AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION DIRECTS COMMITTEE TO TAKE ACTION TO SECURE PASSAGE OF BILL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CLEVELAND, Sept. 28.—Following a sharp fight, the American Legion Convention today adopted a resolution approving of the action of the National Executive Board on the adjusted compensation act, and directed the committee to "take any action which it may deem necessary to assure the prompt passage of this bill." A resolution calling on Secretary of War Baker to publish a "slacker list" was passed without debate.

The convention approved the proposition of temporary universal training, "which shall include physical training, educational training, and Americanization, as well as efficient military training to form a foundation for future extended military training in time of war."

NEW PRICE REDUCTION

MANUFACTURING COMPANIES ANNOUNCE DROP IN PRICE OF HUDSON, ESSEX AND OVERLAND CARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DETROIT, Sept. 28.—The Hudson Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of the Hudson and Essex cars, today announced a price reduction of all models of the two cars, ranging from $200 to $450.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Reductions in the price of automobiles made by the Willys-Overland Company of from $100 to $200 per car were announced today.

SCOTLAND YARD FLUSTRATES BOMB PLOT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Scotland Yard has flustrated a plot to blow up the Irish office and the treasury building here, a Scotland Yard official declared today. He said that Sinn Feiners and Bolshevists planned the explosion in reprisal for police activity against them.

SAVED FROM DEATH

MRS. C. W. PERKINS BROUGHT BACK TO LIFE BY USE OF LUNG MOTOR

A valuable life was saved in Glendale yesterday in such a remarkable manner that it deserves more than passing mention. The young wife of C. W. Perkins, a P. E. motorman living at 720 East Windsor Road, has had asthma so seriously that respiratory failure has been frequent and ofttimes nearly fatal. Yesterday this occurred, and seeing that death was imminent unless heroic measures were used Dr. Chase, the attending physician, called up the Fire Department to have the city's lung motor sent down at once. That being no longer in use Chief Lankford hastily summoned Pulliam & Kiefer's ambulance, which is equipped with a lung motor and a record run was made to the Perkins home where the patient was found black in the face and almost gone from suspended respiration. Two hours' work with the lung motor, pumping pure oxygen into the lungs, brought her back to life and today she is well on the way to recovery.

Many lives have been saved in recent years by prompt use of the lung motor and it is well that it be known that one is available in Glendale at any hour of the day or night by simply calling the Fire Department or Pulliam & Kiefer. Drowned persons, if not too far gone, can be brought back to life by this means and at a convention of Western fire chiefs in Los Angeles last week the representative from Great Falls, Montana, told of six lives he had saved within the past year by the use of the lung motor, patients that had been given up by attending physicians. One of them was a young woman of 19 who had been laid out for dead and the body covered with a sheet. Two still-born babes were brought to life, also, was this man's report.

The fact that such an instrument is available at any time to save lives in Glendale should be universally known.

BACKWARD TURN

MEMBERS OF PHILATHEA CLASS, PRESBYTERIAN S. S., RECALL DAYS OF CHILDHOOD

A school-day party was given at the Presbyterian church Monday night by the grown-up children of the Philathea class. The social was held as a Rally meeting for the beginning of the Sunday School year, Oct. 1st, which all suggested the beginning of school. So it was decided that the young women and their escorts should go back a few years to their childhood, and enjoy a kid party. The entertainment represented a typical school day.

The president of the class, Mrs. Gaskin, acted the part of schoolmarm to perfection, and her little pupils arrived on time, clad in the most youthful middies, checked gingham frocks and pink and blue aprons. Hair ribbons and pigtails were much in evidence. Dignified married gentlemen appeared in knickerbockers, blouses and Windsor ties. The cleverest costumes were worn by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Porter. Mr. Porter had evidently persuaded Father Time to make him "a boy again, just for tonight," and his wife was the picture of herself at ten.

Lessons were recited and a spelling match created much amusement. J. K. Gilkerson, 227 N. Cedar, and W. G. Boyd, 506 N. Kenwood, were the youthful captains, and Dr. Gilkerson's side won.

During recess, games of indoor baseball were enjoyed by the men, while the young women held a business meeting to discuss plans for the class. Good reports were given by every department. Relief work for the Armenians was decided upon as a special task for the class to undertake.

After the business meeting, the Philatheas grew young again, and produced their school lunches, which they had all brought in tin pails, according to the prevailing custom of their youth. After a delicious spread, the school pupils hurried home, as it was very late for children to be out.

Leave for Texas

Dr. E. H. Willisford and family started yesterday on their journey to Houston, Texas, where Mr. Willisford assumes the pastorate of the First Congregational church of that city. The members of this family of four have all been prominent in the religious and social life of Glendale during the past nine years and will be greatly missed.

KEYSTONE STATERS

WAYNE B. CAMPBELL FOLLOWS MOTHER'S EXAMPLE, BUYS GLENDALE HOME

Wayne B. Campbell, wife and two children are new residents of Glendale, having come here not long since from Clarion, Pa., where Mr. Campbell was in the shoe and clothing business. They bought the Chudleigh residence property at 125 West Windsor Road and have just taken possession. One of Mr. Campbell's first acts was to order the Evening News sent to him regularly. He is a nephew of P. S. McNutt of Sierra avenue, Sycamore Canyon. His mother and sisters recently moved here from Clarion, Pa., also, buying a place at 336 East Dryden. Mr. Campbell in an interesting talk with an Evening News reporter expressed eractly the same views regarding financial affairs as R. M. Yost, who was quoted in a recent issue. He says Wall Street has absolutely refused to further finance profiteers in foodstuffs, clothing and shoes as well as coal and that accumulated stocks on hand will have to be disposed of by wholesalers at what they will bring. He thinks that will bring about gradual but steady reduction of prices on all these lines and he was so advised by financiers in St. Louis and other large cities he visited on the way out here.

WANTS POOLROOM

MRS. RICHARDSON FAVORS PROVIDING CLEAN AMUSEMENT FOR GLENDALE BOYS

Editor Glendale Evening News:—

Dear Sir: It is sad to me to see childless men and women take such an active part in trying to save the men and boys from the evils of the poolroom, by their zeal and wasted energy in carrying petitions from door to door.

We are always most down on what we are least up on, I have noticed. Good sports bespeak good health, good work, and we mothers of sons will be delighted to have opened in Glendale a clean, protected poolroom where the young may meet and enjoy games.

It is unkind to condemn a game which brings into use our best faculties, which demands clear calculation, acute sight, an active mind, intelligence, etc. There is nothing low about the game. By all means let us stand for the greatest good to the greatest number and have a poolroom in Glendale. The writer will be glad to visit it.

Let us save our boys from the demoralizing influences they may encounter in the larger city and the time and expense of going there for their recreation.

Yours for the good of humanity,
ELLA W. RICHARDSON.

Growth of First National

All departments of the First National Bank have been growing so rapidly that it has been necessary to open two additional windows for paying and receiving tellers, making four in all. This necessitated the removal of the escrow and collection departments to the second floor of the building. The bank is featuring time accounts and has secured Lee D. Childers, formerly with the First National Bank at Helena, Arkansas, to take charge of this department.

CORPS HOLDS OPEN AND REGULAR MEETINGS, SERVES BIG DINNER

The W. R. C. meeting last Friday afternoon in the N. P. Banks Post and Corps hall, South Glendale Ave., was of unusual interest. The G. A. R. held their meeting in the forenoon, then the ladies of the Corps served dinner, of which nearly 200 partook. Then the ladies of the Corps had their open meeting, which was addressed by several of the G. A. R. men, who made brief impromptu talks, telling of incidents that happened during the war and exhorting to patriotism. Brief addresses were made also by two guests of the Corps, Mrs. Martha Chapin of Los Angeles, who spoke on "The Flag," and Mrs. Minnie Gibson of the executive board, who dwelt on the great work to which the members of the Corps everywhere are called. Mrs. Eustace Moore of Glendale gave a recitation in negro dialect which was greatly enjoyed.

The regular meeting of the Corps for the transaction of routine business closed the day's activities.

Servant Problem Serious

"No, I can't talk to you this afternoon. I have just finished my washing and I am dead tired. I couldn't get a laundress this week so I had to do the washing myself." This is a frequent statement made to Mr. Wilson, whose connection with the G. A. Newton Electric Co. is to help relieve just such conditions as these. The solution of the servant problem today is almost impossible, as the housewife well knows who has tried to hire a laundress lately. The electric servant is in vogue in the modern home and no housewife really knows how easily she can do her washing until she has used an electric washing machine. The wonderful part about this electrical laundress is that "she" will work for only one cent an hour (the actual cost of electricity used). It is a very easy matter to do four hours' washing in one with an electric washer. The average family washing can be done in one or one-half hours at the most. Many Glendale housewives that now have electric laundry equipment used to send their washing out but now they save the laundry bill and have their washing done at home in a most hygienic manner.

Mr. Wilson writes the following article on how to do a modern washing:

To do an up-to-date home washing there are only three essentials besides the clothes to be washed. First have one of the most efficient electrically operated washing machines. Second, have good hot water and third a good white soap or washing powder. A family wash can be assorted into two, three or four tubs full of clothes. One or two of white clothes and then the colored clothes in regular order. Of course, wash the linen first and the more soiled articles last.

Now there is no hard rubbing to be done and the boiling of clothes can easily be eliminated because it is not necessary with a machine. You first run in hot water up to the water line and add soap enough to make a good suds. Put in the first tub of clothes and just turn a little lever and let the machine run for fifteen minutes. Next run the clothes through the electric wringer into the rinse water. Then drop in another armful of clothes and start the washer again. While the washer is working swing the wringer between the rinse and the bluing water, and wring the first lot into the blue water. Then by swinging the wringer into the third position wring them from the blueing into the basket. By the time these have been hung on the line the second tubful is ready to rinse and hang out. Through the whole washing you have been doing two things at one time with very little effort. The clothes have been washing while you have been rinsing and hanging out the preceding tub full.

An electric washer in the home is the quickest, easiest and most efficient method of handling the clean clothes problem.

Open Playground

PARIS. (By United Press.)—The first up-to-date playground for Paris school children has been opened by the representatives of the Junior Red Cross of America here. The new playground is laid out on the terraces of the fortifications near the Porte de Bagnolet. The new playground has been in actual operation for the past three weeks. A large enclosure on the grass-grown terraces of the fortifications has been fenced off.

The playground is large enough to accommodate 500 children at one time. It is fully equipped, according to the latest American ideas, with swings, trapezes, "giant strides," toboggans and various athletic paraphernalia. Competent American instructors supervise the play and teach American games and exercises. Every afternoon the children who come largely from the homes of the poor in the Twentieth Arrondissement, are given a hot drink, bread and chocolate.

Assisting the American instructors at the Zagnolet playground are a number of young Frenchwomen who are being trained to carry on the work after the Junior Red Cross of America withdraws. Simultaneously with the opening of the playground in Paris the Junior Red Cross of America has organized four similar projects in the devastated regions, at Reims, Amiens, Rethel and Guise. Twelve million American school children, members of the Junior Red Cross, have financed the movement.

The program was planned by Colonel Cabot Ward, formerly Park Commissioner of New York City. The direction of the work is now being carried on by Mrs. Alice Ingersoll Thornton of Washington. In charge of the Bagnolet playground is Miss E. B. Beal, of Philadelphia.

"Know Your Business"

James L. Dalton, founder and head of the Dalton Adding Machine Co., once said to his sons: "I may or may not leave you much of this world's goods, but I want to give you something of more value than any material legacy. I want to leave to you just three words which I hope you will never forget: Know Your Business!"

The mountain trail taken by this barefoot boy of the Ozarks led him to Doniphan, Mo., by way of St. Louis. Then came hard, impecunious days as an untutored greenhorn in a store, his ignorance made the butt of practical jokers, who, in the guise of customers, asked him to serve them with articles never dreamed of even by an Edison.

"That taught me my first real lesson in business," declares Mr. Dalton. "I then and there realized that I couldn't get anywhere unless I learned my business."

"How did you mange to build up such an enormous enterprise in such a small town?" he was asked. "What were some of the methods you employed?"

"I acquired the reputation of knowing my business," was the reply.

"Success depends, first upon knowledge, and then upon effort. I put knowledge first," says Mr. Dalton.

"I lived for that store. It was my dream. It was my lifework. I thought of nothing, longed for nothing beyond it. I was absolutely in my element."

Today he has 120 offices in the United States, more than thirty in Canada, almost twenty in South America, and about fifty in Europe, supplying the civilized world with the machine he invented. His plans call for sales of $12,000,000 a year. His is the second largest enterprise of its kind in the world.

It is a waste of time to talk about a sixth sense until a man has learned to use five.

Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook and son Gordon, and J. Martin.

One marked feature of the present building activity is the great number of residences, some of them very fine ones, which are going up west of Pacific avenue. Alexander street and Fairmont avenue, both extending west about two blocks from Pacific avenue, are being built up rapidly, as is Doran street in the same section, with an occasional one on Burchett, Patterson avenue, Pioneer Drive, Milford, Myrtle, Lexington Drive and California avenue, all of which region was formerly a vineyard.

Harry C. Wilcox and wife came out to Glendale last July from Bad Axe, Michigan, about 20 miles north of Detroit. He went back there on business a little later and has but recently returned. He was a building contractor back there and is now working as a carpenter to learn building methods here. He and his wife are living at 412½ East Harvard, where they are now getting the Evening News regularly. Mrs. Wilcox's mother, Mrs. W. W. Stewart, of Michigan, is now visiting them.

City Marshal Stanley and Officer Collins made a hurried trip to Santa Ana yesterday afternoon to bring about the arrest of a youth of that city who had flaunted the speed officers of Glendale that morning riding at excessive speed and darting into alleys to escape detection. Officer Trautwein followed him for a time in a city auto but could not overtake him, though he did get his number. Chief Stanley made arrangements with the Santa Ana police chief to arrest the young man and then notify him. While in the city Stanley and Collins called on Judge Cox, the famous police justice o fSanta Ana who is such a terror to speeders of high and low degree.

EGG OUTLOOK

W. H. VERITY PREDICTS HIGH PRICES FOR THE FALL SEASON

W. H. Verity, of 511 West Broadway, who probably has the largest flock of hens in the city, was asked about egg prospects this season. He keeps in close touch with dealers and producers and also has a record of former years' production and prices for comparison. He says that two elements combine to force egg prices very high this fall. There are fewer eggs in cold storage than usual and the spring pullets are very slow in maturing, hence will not lay as early as in previous years. Last year pullets laid freely at 5 months, some beginning at 4 months and 10 days, but the reverse is true this year. Eggs are now several cents a dozen higher than at this time last year, though they were 10 to 12 cents lower last spring than in 1919, in spite of the increased cost of feed. While there have been marked reductions in wholesale prices of feed the past few weeks in the East, increased freight rates and poor shipping facilities have prevented much of a lowering of retail prices out here, though this may come later.

European Experiences

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Braly of 505 North Brand Boulevard, were guests at a delightful dinner party in Los Angeles Monday evening, given for Dr. Herman Janss by his wife. Dr. Janss has just returned from Europe, and entertained those present with a very interesting account of his journey abroad. He told of making the trip from London to Paris, crossing the English channel in an airplane. It was a huge machine, carrying eight passengers, fitted up with a beautiful salon, where they chatted comfortably. Dr. Janss spent some time in Germany and studied the country carefully. He reported that people there are working hard, women cultivating the soil, etc., and believes they will be able to pay off their war debt. He observed a violent hatred of the ex-kaiser, all over the country. William Garland, prominent real estate man of Los Angeles, was also present at the dinner, and told similar tales of his recent stay in Europe.

Birthday Dinner

Covers were laid for five at a lovely birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Collier of 214 East Chestnut street. The dinner was a joint celebration of the birthdays of Miss A. M. Harrison and Marion Collier, the daughter of Mrs. J. S. Collier of San Francisco. The color scheme was carried out in pink and green in the dining room while the living room was a mass of red carnations. The birthday cake, however, was the crowning event of the dinner, having been beautifully decorated by one of the local bakers.

Sullivans Start Building

The contract was let yesterday by Robert and Albert Sullivan of 711 South Central avenue for the erection of a five-room bungalow on one of the three lots recently purchased by them on the corner of Columbus and Maple avenues.

The bungalow will be of Colonial style and will be built by J. Tipton of Eagle Rock. It is the boys' intention to put these bungalows on the market as soon as completed, which will help to solve the housing problem of Glendale.

No Public Meeting

There will be no public meeting in the High School auditorium this evening under the auspices of the Harding & Coolidge Republican Club, as had been announced, as it is necessary that the committees meet tonight. All the officers of the club are to meet at headquarters, 114 E. Broadway.

Among the new comers to Glendale are Mr. and Mrs. Griner and Mrs. Maud Checkets of Detroit. They are living at 214 East Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Price of Eugene, Oregon, have purchased a lot on Riverdale Drive. They will build a beautiful eight-room plastered bungalow as soon as the garage is completed, the foundation being already laid. They plan to live in the garage until the house is ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Rena Young and daughter, Gladys, who motored to San Francisco about four weeks ago with the intention of making their home there, have decided to return to Glendale in a short time. Although they have enjoyed the visit with Mrs. Young's sister, they prefer Glendale to the northern city.

Hurd & Berry of the Acme Meat Market, 133 North Brand, have added to their equipment a brand-new Ford delivery truck with red body on which is lettered "Acme Meat Market." They have also contracted with Ollie Logan to install in their Burbank and Lankershim Acme markets iceless refrigerating systems like the one in their Glendale market. All of their equipment is up to date.

Bosserman Returns

L. W. Bosserman arrived at home a few days ago from his annual trip to La Porte, Ind., the old home, and Chicago. He says that building seems to be at an absolute standstill in Chicago and the East generally where he visited. Crops of all kinds are abundant and everybody seems prosperous. Everywhere people are getting ready to come to California, he said, a majority of them, apparently, by auto. Friends of his living in Cleveland, Ohio, are getting ready now to come that way and they write him it is the general talk in stores about the people outfitting to start for California.

State News

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—(United Press.)—Four defendants charged with murder in connection with the "bungalow slaying" of McCullough Graydon were to appear before Judge Willis here today when an application for bail for their release will be made.

Mrs. Maybelle Roe is alleged to have shot and killed Graydon, a Los Angeles real estate dealer, at Venice, September 1, in an altercation over possession of a summer cottage. Others charged with being accessories are Edward F. Doane and his wife, owners of the bungalow, and O. A. Bowers.

Testimony at the coroner's inquest was to the effect that Graydon was shot through the back by Mrs. Roe while he was struggling with Doane and Bowers. A blackjack and steel knuckles were also said to have been used in the unusual fight.

"I think they had planned to kill both Mr. Graydon and myself," was the statement of Mrs. Graydon, the widow.

Following the shooting Mrs. Roe is declared to have said, "I would be willing to spend the rest of my life in jail if I were only sure that I killed him."

"Oh daddy, read it again!" Thornton W. Burgess' New Bedtime Stories are mighty popular with the kiddies. A new one each day in the Los Angeles Examiner—delivered to your door for $1.05 per month.

Mark Twain on Weather

Mark Twain, who long since passed to his reward, has not been entirely forgotten by the lovers of his writings. Our townsman, J. H. Redman requests that The Evening News give space to Mark's description of New England weather. Here it is as copied from a New England paper, published in 1874:

I reverently believe that the Maker who made us all, makes everything in New England but the weather. I don't know who makes that, but I think it must be raw apprentices in the Weather Clerk's factory, who experiment and learn how in New England for board and clothes, and then are promoted to make weather for countries that require a good article, and will take their custom elsewhere if they don't get it.

There is a sumptuous variety about the New England weather that compels the stranger's admiration and regret. The weather is always doing something there; always tending strictly to business; always getting up new designs, and trying them on the people to see how they would go. But it gets through more business in spring than in any other season. In the spring I have counted 136 different kinds of weather inside of four and twenty hours.

It was I that made the fame and fortune of that man that had that marvellous collection of weather on exhibition at the Centennial that so astounded the foreigner. He was going to travel all over the world and get specimens from all the climes. I said: "Don't you do it; you come to New England on a favorable spring day." I told him what we would do in the way of style, variety and quantity. Well, he came, and he made his collection in four days. As to variety, why he confessed that he got hundreds of kinds of weather that he had never heard of before. And as to quantity, well, after he had picked out and discarded all that was blemished in any way, he not only had weather enough, but weather to spare; weather to hire out; weather to sell; weather to deposit; weather to invest; weather to give to the poor.

The people of New England are by nature patient and forbearing; but there are some things which they cannot stand. Every year they kill a lot of poets, for writing about "Beautiful Spring." These are generally casual visitors, who bring that notion of spring from somewhere else, and cannot, of course know how the natives feel about spring. And so the first thing they know, the opportunity to inquire how they feel has permanently gone by.

Old Probabilities has a mighty reputation for accurate prophecy, and thoroughly well deserves it. You take up the paper and observe how crisply and confidingly he checks off what today's weather is going to be on the Pacific, down South, in the Middle States, in the Wisconsin region; see him sail along in the joy and pride of his power till he gets to New England, and then see his tail drop. He doesn't know what the weather is going to be in New England. He can't any more tell than he can tell how many Presidents of the United States there's going to be the next year. Well, he mulls over it and by and by he gets out something about like this: probable nor-east to sou-west winds, varying to the southard and westerd and easterd, and points between; high and low barometer swapping around from place to place; probable areas of rain, snow, hail and drouth, succeeded or preceded by earthquakes, with thunder and lightning. Then he jots down his postscript from his wandering mind to cover accidents: "But it is possible that the program may be wholly changed in the meantime."

Yes, one of the brightest gems in the New England weather is the dazzling uncertainty of it. There is only one thing certain about it, you are certain there is going to be plenty of weather—a perfect grand review—but you never can tell which end of the procession is going to move first. You fix up for the drouth; you leave your umbrella in the house and sally out with your sprinkling pot; and ten to one you get drowned; you make up your mind that the earthquake is due; you stand from under and take hold of something to steady yourself, and the first thing you know, you get struck by lightning. These are great disappointments; but they can't be helped. The lightning there is peculiar; it is so deceiving; when it strikes a thing it doesn't leave enough of that thing behind for you to tell whether—well, you'd think it was something valuable and a Congressman had been there.

And the thunder. When the thunder commences to tune up, and scrape and saw and key up the instruments for the performance strangers say, "Why, what awful thunder you have here." But when the baton is raised and the real concert begins, you'll find that stranger down in the cellar with his head in the ash barrel.

Now as to the size of the weather in New England—length ways I mean—it is utterly disproportioned to the size of that little country. Half the time when it is packed as full as it can stick, you will see that New England weather sticking out beyond the edges and projecting around hundreds and hundreds of miles over the neighboring states. She can't hold a tenth part of her weather. You can see cracks all about where she has strained herself trying to do it.

I could speak volumes about the inhuman perseverity of the New England weather, but I will give a single specimen. I like to hear rain on a tin roof, so I covered part of my roof with tin, with an eye to that luxury. Well, sir, do you think it ever rains on that tin? No, sir, skips it every time. Mind, in this speech I have been trying merely to do honor to the New England weather—no language could do it justice.

But after all there is at least one or two things about that weather (or, if you please, effect produced by it) which we residents would not like to part with. If we hadn't our bewitching autumn foliage we should still have to credit the weather with one feature which compensates for all its bullying vagaries—the ice cream—when a leafless tree is clothed with ice from the bottom to the top—ice that is as bright and clear as crystal; every bough and twig is strung with ice beads, frozen dew-drops, and the Shah of Persia's diamond plume. Then the wind waves the branches and the sun comes out and turns all those myriads of beads and drops to prisms that glow and burn and flash with all manner of colored fires which change and change again with inconceivable rapidity, from blue to red, from green to gold, the tree becomes a spraying fountain, a very explosion of dazzling jewels; and it stands there the acme, the climax, the supremest possibility, in art or nature, of bewildering, intoxicating, intolerable magnificance! One cannot make the words too strong.

Month after month I lay up hate and grudge against the New England weather; but when the ice-storm comes at last, I say, "There, I forgive you, now, the books are square between us, you don't owe me a cent; go and sin no more; your little faults and foibles count for nothing; you are the most enchanting weather in the world."

a brief sermon from the pastor on the subject "Go and Teach." His statement was that the first duty of the church is to teach, by sermon, by precept, and especially by example. It was not until 1894 that the Bible School was thought of, but the small beginning in that year by Robert Raikes, in Dorsetshire, England, has had a marvelous growth. He held that it is an honor to teach a Sunday School class, an honor to be sought, because of its infinite possibilities in training the youth to lives of Christian service.

The evening sermon topic was, "The Faith That Saves." Telling of the faith of the patriarchs of old as set forth in the 11th chapter of Romans, the speaker said that we should walk by faith and not by sight. We have absolute faith in the facts of history, such as the lives and works of Washington, Lincoln and others, though we never saw them. How much more then should one have faith in the Christ, whose life and works and plan of redemption are so convincingly set forth in both sacred and secular history.

Efficiency Increasing

Reports issued by the federal reserve banks, covering the conditions of trade and industry for the month of August, include the announcement that there is an increase in the efficiency of workers in the industries of the country.

Ever since the signing of the armistice complaints have been made by employers in many lines of activity that there was a marked letting down in production, although the scale of wages had been on the ascendency. In the building lines, too, it was alleged, less work was being done for the highest wages ever paid.

Federal bank agents now see a decided change in this respect. Many employers are "tightening up" in order to economize, and in a number of cases large numbers of employes have been dismissed or changed to other employment.

The effect of this "tightening up" process has been that many workers who felt secure in their ability to find other work if they were not suited with their employment in every way, realize that jobs are not as plentiful as they were.

It is not a question whether workers had intentionally lowered their productive ability, but it is enough to know that a marked improvement in conditions is reported. With production increased the costs will be reduced, and this will be a contribution to readjustment to normal conditions.

Industrial workers are beginning to realize that war time prices will not prevail indefinitely, and they show a willingness to adapt themselves to conditions that must obtain in industry and business if the United States is to compete with other nations in the markets of the world.

Pickled Walnuts—Squeaky Floors—Bran Muffins—Decorative Frosting!—What's the answer?—Home Helps," Prudence Penny's popular column for women every day in the Los Angeles Examiner—delivered to your door for $1.05 per month.

AUTO RUN AT LOSS, SAYS CITY EMPLOYE

The Board of Public Works yesterday referred to the City Council a communication from Carl R. Williams, an employe of the health department, showing that the actual present cost of operating privately owned cars by city employes who use the same in connection with their work for the city of Los Angeles amounts to 8.73 cents per mile, while under the ordinance now in force, they are allowed but 5.25 cents per mile, and it is alleged that as a result they lose between $1 and $2 per day. —L. A. Examiner, Aug. 13.

"UNCLE SAM" says it cost him from 8c to 14c per mile, dependent on the kind of machine, and he tried out 38 of them during 1919 and it costs more now. . . . . .

Our rate for travel costs you about 3c per mile for the occasional trip and about 1c per mile for the daily commutation. Can you afford to drive your own car often?
